

El Cerrito Historical Society

Centennial Celebration Schedule of Events

All events free, open to the public. Light refreshments

March:

El Cerrito's Gambling Past. Presented by the El Cerrito Historical Society and Bayview Fraternal Order of Eagles. Chris Treadway, author of a forthcoming book about the days when El Cerrito was a gambling destination, will discuss the gambling halls, prizefighting, the dog racing track, and the El Cerrito gangs that tried to dominate gambling throughout Northern California. Thursday, March 9, 7 p.m., Bayview Eagle's Hall, the former Wagon Wheel nightclub, 3223 Carlson Boulevard.

El Cerrito Architectural Walking Tour – One: The Flatlands. Dave Weinstein. Trail Trekkers, Historical Society. Let's walk past and perhaps visit some of the more interesting historical homes in the city's flatlands ranging from the early 20th through the mid 20th century. Saturday, March 18, 1- 3 p.m., meet by the historic Rodini house, 1715 Elm Street..

