

El Cerrito Historical Society

Centennial Celebration Schedule of Events

All events free, open to the public. Light refreshments

September:

Centennial Celebration at the Cerrito Theatre. Presented by Friends of the Cerrito Theater and El Cerrito Historical Society. The Cerrito Theatre, today Rialto Cinemas Cerrito, became an important community institution when it opened Christmas Day 1937. Film scholar Joanne Taylor and Dave Weinstein will discuss the history of the theater. A feature film, from circa 1937 or 1938, will soon be announced. People will come dressed in costume, a band will play period tunes, and historic cars will park outside. September 14, 2017 at 7 p.m. at Rialto Cinemas Cerrito, 10070 San Pablo Ave.

